BRIEF HISTORY

The West Africa Business School (WABS) was established in response to the need for a high quality professional development, corporate training and executive education institute to address the needs of working professionals who have the desire to continue professional and academic training while remaining in the workforce. Following the strategic vision of the Founder Mr. Obasi Ngwuta, the school was formerly registered on 7th May 2002 with the Nigeria Corporate Affairs Commission (CAC) as a private regional training institution. In the beginning, West Africa Business School started with organizing corporate seminars, workshops and soft business short courses. In January 2010, the school launched specialized strategic business conferences, leadership programme and management training courses across Africa focusing mainly on the financial services industry. Today, West Africa Business School (WABS) has become a house-hold name and a global brand, well known in Africa for delivery of world-class Corporate Training, Government Human Capital Development, Professional Education, Executive Education, Business Intelligence, Consulting and Research Services.

WHO ARE WE?

West Africa Business School is one of the foremost regional training and research institution for business, leadership and management education in sub-Saharan Africa. Our strategic intent is to redefine education management and organizational learning by democratizing knowledge and information that links business with intelligence. We are established to create and grow intellectual assets for a sustainable African economy through impart of superior knowledge in company managers, public administrators, business men and women, entrepreneurs, politicians and community leaders especially within the Economic Community of West African States (ECOWAS) in particular and Africa in general.

WHAT WE DO

WABS proclaims that learning and development of human capital consolidates the structure of organizations worldwide. It ensures intelligent strategic action at every level, and gives individuals the tools and awareness to hone that strategy. With continuous learning, leaders of organizations make world-class expertise an integral part of that organisation. Instead of relying on outside support, you enhance the capabilities of your managers and leaders to address challenges. And by exposing senior people to leading edge-thinking, you ensure your business has the strategic drive to succeed. WABS provides corporate training, skill development, research information and consultancy services. WABS has very unique specialist individual and corporate training programmes that are practically challenging and rigorous, drawing on the strengths of the school's first-class faculty of world-renowned scholars, business managers and management development consultants of repute. WABS research into the latest business challenges existing in all corporate sectors in Africa, both old and new from everywhere to reach everyone involved in the subject matter. We then transform the idea into reality by creating business meetings, which bring people together to learn, network and progress.

WABS offers corporate training short courses specializing in industries such as: Financial Services, Energy (Oil & Gas, Power, Water), Telecoms, Manufacturing, Transport & Logistics, Hospitality & Healthcare, Government Ministries, Departments, Agencies and much more.
